

CHAPLAIN JONES ON WITNESS STAND

Testifies in Own Behalf, and Makes Good Impression—No Sensational Developments.

CAPOON ALSO TESTIFIES

Cashier of Merchants and Planters' Bank Explains Issue of Kingston Check.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., August 9.—Chaplain Harry W. Jones, U. S. N., being court-martialled at the Norfolk Navy Yard on charges of sensational conduct and failure to take the witness stand in his own behalf to-day. The taking of the stand by the chaplain came rather surprised, and was entirely voluntary on his part.

The defense had commenced its testimony in rebuttal. A witness was called, and he was found to be absent, and to have time Jones offered himself as a witness. The court was taken somewhat by surprise, but the case went on.

Surprises were expected to spring from the chaplain in rapid order, but his testimony was devoid of sensationalism. He involved not one of his brother chaplains or any one else in scandal. Defining the rules governing the chaplain's testimony, he was informed by President Stuart, of the court, that he would have to answer no question that might be put to him by the judge, advocate tending to in-criminate him.

Capable Witness.
He proved himself a capable witness on cross-examination. Pointed questions were put to him by the judge advocate bearing on the issue of his various protested checks.

Capoon, cashier of the Merchants and Planters' Bank of Norfolk, took the stand as witness for Jones. He testified that Jones deposited for $300 in this bank. It was placed to his credit, but when presented for payment through the clearing-house it was protested. Jones, who was in Kingston, N. Y., thinking that the check for $200 was good, checked on his account for $125, and got Kingston National Bank to cash his check. This check was protested. Jones having been informed in the meantime by telegraph that the check he deposited for $300 had not been paid, then was Captain Jones gave him the case by making Jones good with the Kingston Bank, the check that Jones gave him having also been protested.

GATE CITY, VA., August 9.—Profes-ers under his direction. He has made a fine record as an educator. He will be in Gate City Saturday, when the remainder of the faculty will be selected.

SOME CONFEDERATE SOLDIER LEAVES SILVER CUP

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., August 9.— Mr. John W. Wilkin, of this city, has an interesting relic in the form of a silver goblet, with gold lining, which he found among the debris of the old brick cabin which was connected with the old Colonial residence on Lee Hill, Spotsylvania county, where the Confederate forces were stationed during the battles of the Civil War around Fredericksburg. The only inscription on the cup is "B. W. Wilkin." It was evidently used by some Confederate soldier during the war as a drinking cup.

Too Much of a Job.

A representative of the United States group of engineers has made an inspection of the levee midway of the length of Totusky River in Henric county, and has made an adverse report, stating that in his judgment the improvement is not worth being undertaken by the government.

WALTHAM WATCHES

Dealers who recommend foreign watches want an excessive profit. There is no mystery about a WALTHAM WATCH.
When you buy one, you know what you are getting. The word WALTHAM on a watch is a permanent guarantee of highest quality in workmanship, material and performance from the largest watch factory in the world. What foreign watch carries such a guarantee?

Wise Talks by "The Office Boy"

Honest, what d'ye think of me togs?
Wouldn't those wake you out of a sound slumber? Well, sir, they're not my duds at all. I just put them on to show one of the young fellows that wanted a swell summer suit. Now he'd look in proper attire. Neat, but not too ratty—just gaudy enough, I guess. It's hard to match some of the two-piece suits we're selling in this man's town, and on the subject of summer clothes, we're "it." Heard about the boss wakin' this part of town up by his big discount sale? Everybody's taking notice now, as there is a 25 per cent. discount on all fancy suits. Just think of a regular $25 suit for $18.75.
Our assortment is all right yet—few lines broken, but we're ready for you any old time.

BURY VICTIMS OF TRAGEDY TOGETHER

Telegrams Sent to Places Where Wingfield Had Lived Brought
No Claimants of Bodies.

TURNER MAKES STATEMENT

Says He Was Only Asked to Aid Woman—"Was Friend of Family."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., August 9.—The bodies of the victims of yesterday's tragedy will be taken to Fernum tomorrow. L. J. Wingfield, suicide and murderer, and the murdered wife will be laid side by side in the Wimmer burying-ground. Telegrams were sent to Glasgow, Cumberland, Charle-ottesville and other places, but no claimant for the body of Wingfield has come forward. When the instalment man was moving the furniture out of the house this morning a quart bottle with a little whiskey in it was found. Mrs. Lucy Wimmer, mother of the murdered woman, said that Wingfield was undoubtedly crazy drunk when he murdered her daughter. W. C.
Turner, the man who Wingfield claimed was the cause of the tragedy, is an engineer at the Norfolk and Western. He states that when Mrs. Wingfield arrived here three weeks ago, it was stated that her husband had sent her home, she wrote to him and asked him to come, and he denied that he had done any wrong. Mrs. Wimmer says Turner was raised with the girl and is an old friend of the family.
Franklin county people say that the father of Mrs. Wimmer, Robert Sloan, is a wealthy farmer. The girl was always wild and ran away from home when she was sixteen, coming to Roanoke, where Wingfield met her. She went to Maryland with him and they were married at Cumberland.

CAPTAIN BLAND NOT TO RUN FOR LEGISLATURE.

NORFOLK, VA., August 9.—One of the local political sensations is the announcement of Captain Charles T.
Bland, of Portsmouth, that he is out of the legislative race. Captain Bland had been picked as a sure winner against Claude E. Bland, Bushington. There are other applicants for enlistment, but the ex-soldier was too strict for them. Sergeant Freeman, formerly connected with the recruiting office in Richmond, is in charge of the office here.

CARNEGIE GIVES FIVE THOUSAND MORE FOR LIBRARY.

LEXINGTON, VA., August 9.—Mr.

ing at Washington and Lee University by an additional gift of $5,000.
Work has commenced on the building and will be pushed to completion.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WILL DEFER ACTION

Decide Not to Ask for Wet and Dry Election at Present Time.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA., August 9.—The Anti-Saloon League of this city, which has for some time been claiming to petition court for a wet and dry election early this fall, has deferred action in the case. This step on the part of the anti-saloon people is for the purpose of awaiting some decision by the supreme court, which will settle definitely the question of qualification to vote in the election. The General Assembly will probably be asked to act on this question at the next election.
Danville went dry some years ago, but about two years ago was voted wet again. A strong fight will be waged by both sides, as an election during the course of the next six or eight months is certain to be held.

Purchase Beautiful Site for Home and Industrial School

Twenty-Five Acres Secured in Dinwiddie County on Electric Line.

WILL CANVASS VIRGINIA

Institution Will Be Owned and Controlled by State—Captain Bishop Appointed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., August 9.—The site purchased for the Home and Industrial School for Girls is a tract of about twenty-five acres of land in Dinwiddie county, near this city, situated at the junction of Cox's Road and the electric line of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company. The location is eligible and conveniently reached, and the country around is attractive.
The main building, to be erected first, will cost about $25,000, and until the money is in sight work on the building will not be commenced. The generous gift of $10,000 by Mr. Roper will greatly aid the society in efforts for the establishment of the home, but much more money will be needed, and the society has appointed a solicitor to canvass the State for the necessary additional funds. As the Home and Industrial School is to be a State institution, the interest felt in its success will be general.

Dr. W. E. Drewey, superintendent of the Central State Hospital, who was yesterday elected president of the society, will prove a worthy successor to Mr. Roper. He is one of the founders and promoters of the State Conference of Charities and Corrections, and has given years of attention to the advancement of great public charities.

Worshipping Apart.

The two warring factions of the Harrison Street Baptist Church, colored, who have been forbidden by court orders to hold any meetings in the church until further orders, are now worshipping apart at other places. Pastor Eli Farit last night preached to an audience of fully 2,500 in the Skating Rink, and the old deacons and trustees and their families held services at the Rink. Both meetings were conducted in a quiet and orderly manner. It will not be until the 9th of September that the two factions will meet together in the church building to test their strength as controversies in the management of the church. This meeting will be held under the immediate direction of a commissioner of the court, the Rev. Dr. J. M.
Pilecher.

TROUBLE BREAKS OUT IN NEW PLACE

Captain Carpenter Makes Serious Complaint Regarding Conditions at Pine Beach.

ARRESTS, BUT NO CONVICTIONS

Head of Powhatan Guard Puts Blame on Justice Backus.
Threatens to Resign.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, VA., August 9.—Trouble has broken out in a new place in the matter of the policing of Pine Beach.
It now concerns the judicial end of the Norfolk county government.

Captain Henry W. Carpenter, commandant of the Powhatan Guard, the exposition police force, and recently named by Judge William M. Portlock, of the Norfolk county Circuit Court, to command the Pine Beach force, succeeding Justice Backus, of Cranwell, now threatens to resign that job unless he is supported by Justice K. Q. Backus in the suppression of disorder, or else a new justice he named to deal with the breakers.

Captain Carpenter does not mince words in discussing Justice Backus, and the charges that he brings against him are serious, and almost anywhere outside of Norfolk county would demand an investigation. Backus also presents over the Exposition Police Court.

Captain Carpenter cites two cases to support his charges against the justice.
In one case two of his men who used force in subduing two employees of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company were themselves fined $1 and costs each on the charge of assaulting the traction men.

These men, said Captain Carpenter, went to Pine Beach to "beat up" a supposed "spotter" of the railway. The men, charges the captain, were drunk, and would take no notice of the warning of the guard to behave themselves.

In an effort of the railway men to enter Cheyenne Joe's place, where they alleged the "spotter" was, they were placed under arrest by the guard. The men resisted, and the officers were compelled to use their clubs.

"The action of Justice Backus in this case was most remarkable for a court of justice, to say the least," said a well-known citizen of Norfolk county to-day.

"Streets of Seville" Case.

The other case cited by Captain Carpenter is that of Manager Sabbach, of the "Streets of Seville," an attraction on the exposition Warpath. The captain received orders from the exposition management to close up the attraction, and the guard was ordered to break down the obstruction and was placed under arrest.

When the case came up for trial, said Captain Carpenter, "Justice Backus ruled that the Powhatan Guard cannot arrest a party unless they have a warrant for the arrest. Sabbach was given his freedom, and it is said with satisfaction that the guard for false arrest and the closing of his place."

"The situation is now acute," continued Captain Carpenter. "I will not take another case before Justice Backus.
If he does not give me another justice, I will notify Director-General Barr that I intend to surrender the commission to patrol Pine Beach. I mean that, and unless I receive cooperation I will withdraw from Pine Beach at once. Up to this time my work at Pine Beach has been successful. All the sure-card gamblers and other flagrant violators of the law have left Pine Beach. But can I keep them away when I am not co-operated with by the man who is here to enforce the law?"

Neither does Captain Carpenter place all the blame for his trouble on Justice Backus.

Judge Portlock agreed when Captain Carpenter was put in charge at Pine Beach to name an additional justice of the peace to act there; but up to this time, it is said, he has been unable to get a suitable man to take the job.

CONSUL OFFERS BEAUTIFUL CUP

Henning Fernstrom Seeks to Encourage Races Between Swedish and American Crews.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, VA., August 9.—Henning Fernstrom, chief engineer of the Virginian Railroad and consul for Sweden at Norfolk, has offered a beautiful cup for a series of boat races between the crews of the American and Swedish yachts. The races will be held at Norfolk when it comes to the Jamestown Exposition, August 18th. The boat races for this cup will be run under the rules to be made by officers of the two fleets.

Prince William, grandson of King Oscar of Sweden, is a lieutenant on the Egla.

This cup, which is of beautiful design and of costly workmanship, is to remain the property of the winning crew so long as it can hold it.
It was challenged by the crew of another war vessel of a different nationality, the crew holding the cup is required to defend its right to the ownership of the cup by another contest, the cup going to the winner in each case. In this way the Fernstrom Cup becomes of international interest.

The races will be held on either the 15th or 20th of August. The course will be three nautical miles, straightaway. It will be a pulling race, and the style of oarsmen to be decided upon just before the race.

tion of the heated term. Wednesday Mr. Yates became so unwell that he went to the Newport News Hospital for treatment, and is still confined there. It is not thought, however, that he is seriously ill.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.

Adopts Memorials and Transacts a Good Deal of Business.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD C. H., VA., August 9.—The County School Board held a called meeting here to-day, presided over by Superintendent Charles M.
Hazen. A report of the finance committee, formulated at this place last week, was read and adopted. Memorial resolutions in respect to the three members of the body who died during the past year—namely, Captain William A.
Blackburn, county superintendent, Captain David Moore, of Manchester District, and Mr. R. E. Eanes, of Manchester District, were submitted by Mr.
Beh. P. Owen, Jr., chairman of the memorial committee, and adopted. Dr.
L. A. Stiles was elected vice-president of the body, to succeed Captain Moore, and Rev. Charles N. Friend, clerk. W.
T. Sherman, of Ericsburg, qualified as successor to Mr. Eanes. The old painting of the famous old brick schoolhouse, which is in a dilapidated condition, was read and adopted. Some hundred dollars
